

Hello!

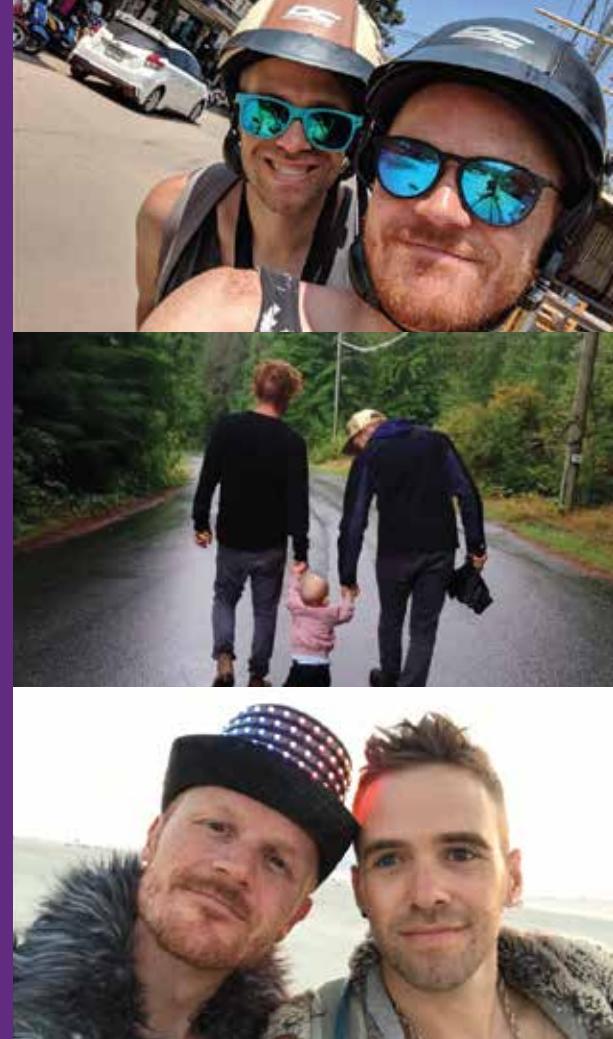

We are thrilled you are taking the time to get to know us better. More than anything, we want to be parents and are grateful to be considered as the adoptive parents in your child's life.

We met in Vancouver in 2007 and instantly fell for each other. Our first date lasted 72 hours, and we have been inseparable ever since. Since being married in the summer of 2010, we've lived in England and Australia, travelled through Southeast Asia and Europe, attended Burning Man four times, started our own musical theatre production company, and shared many laughs, parties, warm evenings and adventures with family and friends.

We are best friends, soul mates and life-long partners. Our home is warm and full of the love and support of family and friends. We experience a lot of fun, silliness, and adventure together, and are wholeheartedly ready to expand our family.

With love and respect for the decision ahead of you,

ALAN & TIM

OUR HOME

We own a spacious and bright three-bedroom condo in North Vancouver, just a few blocks from good schools and childcare, beautiful parks, and numerous shops and restaurants around Lonsdale Quay. We are also a short distance from outdoor activities, Tim's summer cabin on Gambier Island, and Alan's parents in Qualicum Beach.

ABOUT TIM BY ALAN

Tim is caring, kind, and exudes passion for whatever he does. He jumps head first into whatever project he pursues yet somehow manages to maintain close bonds with his friends and family and staying active through swimming, hiking and producing theatre.

What I like best about Tim, however, is that he wears his heart on his sleeve, and this makes him empathetic and compassionate to the needs and emotions of others. Tim is not afraid to be silly or playful, and finds way to bring out the fun in life.

Relationships are important to Tim, and he puts a lot of time and care into strengthening bonds with people he cares about. Watching Tim take care of his niece, Revel, made me realize how great he will be as a father. He is patient, kind, good humoured, and willing to go the extra mile to take care of his niece while she grows.

Tim works from home as a freelance Web Developer and has a very flexible schedule that will adapt perfectly to parenting.

ABOUT ALAN BY TIM

Alan is compassionate, kind-hearted and very loving, all on top of a killer sense of humour. He strives to get the most out of life, both through bettering himself and sharing experiences with people he loves. He is fiercely loyal to his friends and family and values relationships above all else.

He is intensely artistic and imaginative, and his fearless pursuit of his creative passions is inspirational to everyone who knows him.

As a Dance Teacher, Alan's job is perfectly suited for parenting, with six months of parental leave as well as regular breaks during the school year and two months off every summer.

Alan is the absolute best person I know, and I can't wait to see him grow into parenthood. I know wholeheartedly that he will be a terrific father.

FAMILY & FRIENDS

Our family and friends are our world, and our nearest and dearest are excited about us welcoming a child into our family. We regularly spend time with them, many of whom have children of their own, and we are confident that our support system is strong.
