

Andrea and Daniel

We gravitated toward each other and we hope that you will gravitate towards us to raise this child.

This is us;

We have been together for over 8 years and married for 5. We fell in love very quickly as food was the way into both of our hearts. Andrea, as an incredibly talented and passionate pastry chef; and Daniel, as a cunning chef and knowledgeable butcher. We spent days, weeks and months falling in love, feasting, road tripping, planning the future and spending all our waking time in each other's company. After we moved in together we added Franklin, an adorable miniature Schnauzer, to our little family. We have always wanted to have children. Our road has taken us to adoption, Sunrise, and hopefully to you and our child. We understand the challenges for everyone involved and we just want what's right for this child.

About Andrea from Daniel;

Andrea is the most passionate, dedicated, caring and loving person I know. Her desire to be there for the people she loves is second to none. Andrea is really funny and thoughtful, and she always knows how to make me smile. She is a pastry chef by trade, and she is capable of making the most delicious and beautiful creations for countless people to enjoy. In her free time she is likely to be drinking coffee; walking in the woods or on the beach with me and Franklin; having a thought provoking conversation; taking in a good book or movie; or creating something delicious in the kitchen; usually with me by her side. She is a woman who, no matter what, will always love and protect her own. And a woman whose desire to raise a child in a happy, loving, fun, food-filled home is so genuine. I am beyond proud to be with her, and so blessed to have met her.

About Daniel from Andrea;

Daniel is the type of person you like the moment you meet him because of his positive, sunny attitude. His sense of humour makes me laugh to tears every single day; and always makes even the worst days a little brighter. Daniel is an extraordinarily thoughtful, loving family man. He takes incredible care of me and our little dog Franklin, seeming to always know what we need and when we need it. It's very easy to be best friends with Daniel because of his wonderful sensitivity and loyalty, always remembering to celebrate even the smallest achievements.

Daniel is a passionate butcher and chef who always brings our family and friends together over a fantastic meal. Nothing makes me happier than sitting at the table laughing and chatting over a tasty meal each night.

Our Lifestyle;

We live in a beautiful and spacious two bedroom apartment close to downtown and only a short drive away to beaches and forest. We love the balance of working and living close to downtown and being able to escape easily in our car into nature. We are big on the outdoors. We go walking every day with Franklin. Planning little getaways and day trips is what we're all about. We love to be together and to experience new things, new foods, new places and connections to each other. We always find the time to eat dinner together at our table as a family.

Our promise to you;

We will love this child with all our hearts and immediately accept them as our own, our family, our child. We have always both wanted children but we're not fixated on how they will come to us. Adoption is the path we have found, the path we have chosen and we are so happy to be a part of this unique and accepting community. We have loving and supportive families who will be a big part of our lives with this child. We believe strongly in openness with you, the birth parents, and with the idea that this child deserves to have all the best opportunities available to them, with as many people as is needed to help them succeed. We can promise our unconditional love, our support and guidance. We can promise to make sure this child is given everything we have and everything we are to make them feel great about themselves, their life and their dreams. Being a parent is a choice for us, and something we know that we are ready to become.

Last words;

We believe we would be a great family for any child to join, and make their own. We are very passionate about open adoption and keeping quality contact with their birth family as it's such a vital part of successful adoption and a strong adoption plan. We hope to have the opportunity to discuss this with you in more detail and we respect your wishes regarding openness and contact. Thank you for taking the time to see a bit about who we are. Best of luck to you with your decision. We understand that this may be a challenging time and we are here to support you along the way.
