Sara & Daniel (& Jack the dog)

Our Promise to You!

We can't imagine how difficult a decision this must be and words can not describe our gratitude to you for considering us as the adoptive parents to raise your child. It is with great admiration and respect that we write to you. We are sharing our photo's and story in the hope that they will give you a sense of who we are and the life we want to give and to share with your child. Please know that we are committed to whatever level of openness you are comfortable with and flexible. Our utmost priority is the welfare of your child and you.

- Sincerely Daniel & Sara

We were married in 2013 in Vancouver and had a sort of second wedding/celebration in Brazil to share with Daniel's family. Both were wonderfully memorable, happy times and we feel very fortunate to have the families we do with their love and support for us here and abroad. We currently live in a lovely townhouse complex in Vancouver where all of our neighbours and their children play together and support one another - it has the feeling of a large extended family! We love being active and spend a lot of time outdoors, hiking or snowshoeing in the fall and winter and enjoying other seasonal activities in the spring and summer. We so look forward to sharing all of these moments with our future family. We own our own business and working for ourselves gives us the flexibility to do the things we love.

Sara is a lover of art, travel, food, health and wellness, yoga, and photography. She has a beautiful, warm, loving demeanor which she imparts instantly to everyone she meets. Motherhood will come naturally to her. Sara has always aspired to having a baby; she and Daniel tried to conceive for some time without success. Sara was adopted as a baby by a loving couple from BC. Her Father was also adopted so she has a deep understanding of what it feels like and the capability to share her insights and understanding with her own adoptive child. When she was 19, she connected with her birth mother which was a wonderful thing for them both. After her adoption as a baby, Sara's family moved to Asia for work; she lived in both Asia and Vancouver growing up. She comes by her love of travel very naturally.

Daniel is passionate about health and fitness, sports, reading, philosophy, travel and the outdoors. He has a very gentle, fun loving spirit and a warm and infectious manner. He is a born teacher with unlimited patience and is looking forward to teaching his children about the world. He was born and raised in Brazil and moved to Canada with his mother and brother when he was ten years old, attending high school, college and university in Vancouver. He is still very connected to his Brazilian family and his native culture. Sara and Daniel both spend a great deal of time with their two nephews who they have become very close to and have watched grow up. Both cannot wait to have children of their own to nurture, teach and love.
